

SESSION 2: LOVE YOUR SPOUSE

Welcome and Review Last Week's Homework: 20 minutes

Session #2 Teaching: Loving Your Spouse: 10 minutes

As married couples, we are called to love our spouse. We can so center our homes on our children that we neglect our marriages, and a neglected marriage will become an unhappy marriage.

Read Ephesians 5:21–33:

21 Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ. 22 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands as you do to the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, his body, of which he is the Savior. 24 Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit to their husbands in everything. 25 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her 26 to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, 27 and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless. 28 In this same way, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. 29 After all, no one ever hated their own body, but they feed and care for their body, just as Christ does the church — 30 for we are members of his body. 31 “For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.” 32 This is a profound mystery—but I am talking about Christ and the church. 33 However, each one of you also must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

NOW PRAY for UNITY before discussing these questions.

This Scripture is intimidating and possibly overwhelming, but it is what we are called to do in our marriage covenant. As a husband, it is intimidating to think of being to your wife what Christ is to the church. Husbands are commanded to love their wives

Small Group Discussion: 15 minutes

What does it look like for husbands to love their wives as Christ loves the church? Also, how can wives help their husbands obey this command?

As a wife, it is equally intimidating to think of submitting to your husband as you should to the Lord. “Submission” is frowned on in the world’s eyes, but it’s a clear command to wives in Scripture.

What does it look (and not look) like for wives to submit to their husbands as the church does to Christ? Also, how can husbands make it easier to submit to them?

If you have embraced the gospel, then the Holy Spirit lives in you. You are not alone! The Holy Spirit will help you do what God has commanded you to do.

Small Group Wrap-Up: 10 minutes

What did you cover in your small group time?

What were the biggest take-aways and action items?

Discuss This Week's Homework: 5 minutes

This Week's Homework:

Re-read Ephesians 5:21–33:

21 Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ. 22 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands as you do to the Lord. 23 For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, his body, of which he is the Savior. 24 Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit to their husbands in everything. 25 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her 26 to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, 27 and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless. 28 In this same way, husbands ought to love their wives as their own bodies. PRAY AGAIN for UNITY before discussing these questions.

Review the questions from last week's class and discuss again:

Discuss together how you can love and respect each other more openly.

Be intentional and make commitments to each other on specific improvement areas to represent Jesus' model for a Godly marriage.
